WORKSHOP CO-FOUNDER DOC CRANDELL

“LET NO MAN BE TURNED AWAY FROM THE WORKSHOP BECAUSE HE CANNOT AFFORD TO GO!”

The Atlanta Men’s Workshop was founded in 1982 by the late Doc Crandell of Roswell, Georgia. Having already established a similar workshop in Germantown, Ohio, Doc wanted to share the life-changing experience of this weekend with his friends in Alcoholics Anonymous in the Atlanta area. It was one of the many ways he lived the principle of "Pass It On!"

Since its founding, thousands of men in recovery have attended the Workshop, strengthening their sobriety and deepening their commitment to recovery. Doc believed that no man should ever be denied the opportunity to attend The Rock because of financial hardship.

In 1985, Doc passed away while making a 12th Step call, but his vision and legacy continue to inspire the Workshop today. Through the Doc Crandell Memorial Scholarship Fund, we are able to carry his message forward by providing scholarships to men who otherwise could not attend. Many scholarship recipients have gone on to return to the Workshop and help other men experience the same opportunity for growth and recovery. That is the Program in action.

We invite you to become part of this enduring tradition by making a contribution to the Doc Crandell Memorial Scholarship Fund. Your generosity helps ensure that every man seeking recovery has the chance to experience the hope, fellowship, and transformation that the Atlanta Men’s Workshop provides.
